Aureo

Designer: Matteo Nunziati

The Aureo collection, consisting of a drawer chest and bedside table designed by Matteo Nunziati, is inspired by the mathematical/geometric concept of the Golden Ratio: a system on which the proportion of all spaces dedicated to the human life is based, with the intent of creating a balanced, yet functional standard. The Aureo furniture accessories are simple, single-block pieces, partitioned by the handle which divides them in sections. The simple, elegant shapes and details, like the ceramic top and metal handle, are offset by a contemporary design with traditional undertones conveyed by its minimalism and purity.
